

They are all back safe and sound

Some comments from our last trip out. . .

“Something God really taught me on the trip was that if I seek Him, I will find Him.”

“Something God really taught me on the trip was how amazing His creation is and how abounding in love He is in the way He works in each of the girl’s lives.”

“Something that impacted me the most on the trip was the amazing views and the time we were able to spend with God doing our devotionals and enjoying the great views.”

“Something that impacted me the most on the trip was the time we spent reading the bible by ourselves each day.”
